

EXCLUSIVE LICENSE AND COMMERCIALIZATION AGREEMENT

Parties

This Agreement is between Alpha Biotech Ltd. and Beta Pharma Inc.

License

Alpha grants Beta an exclusive, irrevocable and perpetual license to use, develop, manufacture and commercialize the licensed patents and products throughout the Territory.

Intellectual Property

All improvements and certain intellectual property developed under this Agreement shall be assigned to Alpha or jointly owned by the parties. Beta shall support patent prosecution and enforcement.

Commercialization and Royalties

Beta shall commercialize the products and pay royalties calculated on net sales. Additional milestone payments shall be payable upon achievement of specified development and regulatory milestones.

Minimum Commitment

Beta shall satisfy minimum purchase and commercialization commitments during each contract year.

Exclusivity and Competition

During the applicable term, Beta shall not commercialize competing products and shall comply with the agreed non-compete restrictions.

Liability and Damages

The parties agree to specified liability limitations and liquidated damages for certain breaches, including breaches of exclusivity and intellectual property obligations.

Termination

Termination may result in post-termination services, continuing royalty obligations and other contractual remedies.
